Association for Promoting the Repeal of the TAXES ON KNOWLEDGE. Finance Committee:—Chairman—Richard Cobden, M.P., 103, Westbourne Terrace. W. A. Wilkinson, Beckenham; John Evans, Lincoln's Inn Fields; William Wickham, 8, Kingsland Terrace. Treasurer—J. A. Novello, 69, Dean-street, Soho.

The agitation for the Repeal of the Paper, Advertisement, and Newspaper Stamp Duties, has now been carried on for three years, with an amount of funds unusually small in comparison with the work accomplished; the whole expense up to this time having been only about £380. The continued support given by a House of Commons, professedly favorable to Reform and Education, to Taxes which impede the progress of popular instruction, obstruct trade, and cripple the press, while (with the exception of the Paper Duty) they yield insignificant sums to the revenue, renders it necessary to continue the exertions for their Repeal. The renewed attempt to practise on the ignorance of the people, by persuading them that their means of living can be increased by lessening the amount of food to be divided amongst them, points out Free Trade in Knowledge as the most appropriate guarantee to Free Trade in Corn. The objects specially contemplated, for the present year, are:—to organise District Societies in the Metropolis and elsewhere, which shall give the agitation a more popular character; and to give Lectures in the Provinces, whereby the people may be thoroughly acquainted with the importance of the question, so as to produce results at the General Election. For these purposes a fund of £500 is required. Subscriptions to be paid to the Treasurer, J. A. Novello, 69, Dean-street; to William Wickham, 8, Kingsland-terrace; or to the Collector, Mr. Gattie. We confidently appeal to all friends of Free Trade, and to all friends of Education, for a Subscription proportionate to the means of the giver, and the worthiness of the contemplated object. Any person sending Subscriptions by post, and not receiving a formal receipt within a week, is requested to write to the Secretary of the Association.

By order of the Financial Committee,
RICHARD COBDEN, Chairman.
